Release notice version 1.0

For this first release you are able to create a new Everbie and both feed, train, work and interact with it. The stats in the game are also active and you are able to change them through buying items and you are also able to view them in a seperate view. In a later version there will also be pictures in the user manual.